

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Loren Larson Jr.,
Appellant,

v.

Superior Court, Fourth Judicial District,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13449

Order

Motion for Reconsideration of Court's
Order dated 12/3/2019

Date of Order: 12/19/2019

Trial Court Case No. 4FA-18-02677CI

Before Allard, Chief Judge, and Harbison, Judge.

On December 3, 2019, after the State's time to file an opposition had passed, a single judge issued an order denying Loren Larson Jr.'s motion to strike the State's brief. Mr. Larson asks for reconsideration of that order because he continues to believe that the State is seeking to raise an issue or issues in this appeal that are not raised in Mr. Larson's opening brief.

The Court has again reviewed Mr. Larson's opening brief and the State's brief. In the Court's view, the State is responding to the due process claim that Mr. Larson raises on appeal and is not improperly raising new issues in its brief. For that reason, the motion for reconsideration is DENIED.

In the alternative, Mr. Larson requests permission to file a supplemental brief to address the issue he believes the State is improperly raising. Because Mr. Larson has not yet filed a reply brief, his motion to allow a supplemental brief is DENIED. Instead, the Court sua sponte orders the Clerk's Office to vacate the current due date for the reply brief. Mr. Larson's reply brief is now due on or before January 13, 2020. Mr. Larson may address in his reply brief the issue or issues that he believes the State is improperly raising in its appeal.

Larson v. Superior Court - p. 2
File No. A-13449
December 19, 2019

If Mr. Larson's reply brief is filed before he receives this order, the Clerk's office shall return the reply brief with a copy of this order attached. Mr. Larson may then resubmit his original reply brief, or submit a new one. In any event, if Mr. Larson files a reply brief, it is due on or before January 13, 2020.
